Course Description

English 1A is the first course in SJSU's two-semester lower division composition sequence; it provides an introduction to baccalaureate-level composition with attention to personal voice and personal experience, on the one hand, and the more formal attitudes and demands of writing at the university (expository and argumentative essays), on the other. Students will develop college-level reading abilities, rhetorical sophistication, and writing styles that give form and coherence to complex ideas and feelings. Passage of the English Proficiency Test (EPT) or passage of an approved substitute course for the EPT is prerequisite.

Course Goals

Students will achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate college-level proficiency in all of the following:

Clear and effective communication of meaning

An identifiable thesis tailored to a particular audience and purpose

Prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing

The ability to explain, analyze, develop, and criticize ideas effectively

Effective use of supporting material drawn from reading or other sources

Effective organization within the paragraph and the essay

Accuracy, variety, and clarity of sentences

Appropriate diction

Control of conventional mechanics (punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement)

(The above objectives will all be realized through the writing process developed in the course content.)

Course Learning Objectives:

Learning Objective 1: Students will write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to perform effectively the essential steps in the writing process (prewriting, organizing, composing, revising, and editing.)

Learning Objective 2: Students will write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to express (explain, analyze, develop, and criticize) ideas effectively.

Learning Objective 3: Students will write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to use correct grammar (syntax, mechanics, and citation of sources) at a college level of sophistication.

Learning Objective 4: Students will write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to write for different audiences.

Required Texts/Readings

Bedford Handbook (8th.ed), Patterns of College Writing (12th), college dictionary, four exam books (for in-class essays), one yellow book

Classroom Protocol

Students are expected to be in class on time with their books and homework ready to answer questions on the assigned reading. Please no text-messaging, phoning, or any non-class related use of computers. There is no provision for late work. Should you be absent from class, contact me immediately by phone or email.

Dropping and Adding: Drop Deadline is Sep 3 . Add deadline is Sep 10.

Assignments and Grading Policy

Eight 1000-word essays are required in English 1A for a minimum of 8,000 words. Writing assignments will give repeated practice in all phases of the writing process: prewriting, organizing, writing, revising, and editing.

English 1A is a reading-intensive course. You will have reading assignments to complete for almost every class period, and readings will be accompanied by some form of writing. It is therefore imperative that you complete the readings prior to each class and come with your book prepared to discuss them in class.

In the English Department courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of the ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs.

This is an A, B, C, D, F course. You must earn at least a C in order to pass. Any student with a final grade below a C must repeat the course.

Grading Scale

A=excellent (correct, persuasive, informative prose) A+=100, A=95, A-=90
B=good (clear, well-developed, well-organized writing) B+=89, B=85, B-=80
C=satisfactory (clear thesis, coherent sentences, complete essay) C+=79, C=75, C-=70
D=unsatisfactory (unclear, incorrect, incomplete effort) D+= 69, D=65, D-=60
F=failure (off-topic, plagiaristic, late) F=50

Final Average

4 in-class essays=30%, 4 out-of-class essays=30%, 1 final exam=20%, 10 quizzes=10%, Participation=10%.
