COURSE DESCRIPTION

English 1B is the second course in SJSU’s two-semester lower-division composition sequence. Beyond providing repeated practice in planning and executing essays, and broadening and deepening students’ understanding of the genres, audiences, and purposes of college writing, English 1B differs from English 1A in its emphasis on persuasive and critical writing (with less attention paid to the personal essay), its requirement for fewer but longer essays, and its introduction to writing informed by research. Students will develop sophistication in writing analytical, argumentative, and critical essays; a mature writing style appropriate to university discourse; reading abilities that will provide an adequate foundation for upper-division work; proficiency in basic library research skills and in writing papers informed by research; and mastery of the mechanics of writing.

Prerequisites: Passage of English 1A (C or better) or approved equivalent.

COURSE GOALS AND STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES

Building on the college-level proficiencies required in English 1A, students shall achieve the ability to write complete essays that demonstrate advanced proficiency in all of the following:

- Clear and effective communication of meaning.
- An identifiable focus, tailored to a particular audience and purpose (argumentative essays will state their thesis clearly and show implied or stated awareness of some opposing point of view).
- An appropriate voice that demonstrates an awareness of audience and purpose.
- Careful attention to review and revision.
- Effective and correct use of supporting materials, including independent research (e.g., quoting, paraphrasing, summarizing, and citing sources);
- Effective analysis, interpretation, evaluation, and synthesis of ideas encountered in multiple readings.
- Effective organization and development of ideas at paragraph and essay levels.
- Appropriate and effective sentence structure and diction.
- Command of conventional mechanics (e.g., punctuation, spelling, reference, agreement).

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES (SLO):

- 1: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to refine the competencies established in English 1A.
- 2: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to use (locate, analyze, and evaluate) supporting materials, including independent library research, and identify key concepts and terms that describe the information needed.
- 3: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to select efficient and effective approaches for accessing information utilizing an appropriate investigative method or information retrieval system.
- 4: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to synthesize ideas encountered in multiple readings.
- 5: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to incorporate principles of design and communication to construct effective arguments.
- 6: Students shall write complete essays that demonstrate the ability to identify and discuss issues related to censorship and freedom of speech.

COURSE GUIDELINES

Writing: In-class exercises and a series of essays will give you practice in planning, researching, drafting, workshopping, revising, editing, and proofreading. A series of in-class and out-of-class essays, including substantive rewrites, will total 8,000 words for the semester. This minimum requirement excludes the final exam. Out-of-class essays must be typed and single-spaced (Times New Roman, 12).

Reading: This is a reading-intensive course. Plan for 1-3 hours per week of reading. Weekly readings will be posted on the class blog. Come to class prepared for discussion, quizzes, and short-essay responses. You are responsible for all assigned reading.

Workshops: To receive credit for workshops, you must 1) arrive on time with a hard copy of your complete draft and 2) submit peer review sheets with final essays as required. In addition, you will be evaluated on the quality of the feedback you provide to your classmates.

Final Reflection: This course does not have a final exam. Instead, you will write a reflection essay at the end of the semester, worth 10% of your grade. In this essay, you will reflect on the progress of your work over the course of the semester. A prompt and rubric will be provided.

GENERAL CLASS POLICIES

You are expected to participate fully in class—show up on time, come prepared, ask and respond to questions, listen actively, and be courteous. In the event of missed class, check the blog, contact a classmate, or visit my office hour.

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS

Out-of-class essays: We will be using Turnitin.com for assignments unless otherwise instructed. Do not submit any essays by email. Be sure to upload the correct document; the document you submit will be the one that is graded—no exceptions. Leave extra time for computer troubles, internet outages, and other last-minute glitches when submitting online. You will need to set up a Turnitin account with the following info:

Turnitin Class ID:

Section 86 (7:30 a.m.) 7571353

Section 38 (10:30 a.m.) 7571350

Password: maranhas

In-class essays: may be made up for full credit during office hours if more than 24-hour notice or a doctor's note is provided. For students who contact me within a 24-hour window before or after class, in-class essays may be made up for partial credit during office hours.

Quizzes and Short Reflections: may not be made up or submitted late.

Late essays (2, 3, 5): will be penalized a full letter grade and must be submitted as hard copy to class in addition to Turnitin. (Do not send essays by email.) Please note there will be a longer return period on late work. Any essay that is not submitted within 7 days of the deadline will receive an F. All essays (for a total of 8,000 words) must be submitted to earn a D- or higher in the course. Final Reflections will not be accepted late.

ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING POLICY

Grading: A-F. To take the Writing Skills Test and move on to upper-division coursework, students need a C or better in English 1B. (C- or lower is not acceptable.) Please track your grades and contact me promptly with any concerns or questions; do not wait until the final weeks of the semester. There will be no extra credit offered; please put your best effort into each assignment.

Final grade will be determined as follows:

Out-of-class essays (2, 3, 5)	35%
Research Essay	25%
In-class essays, prompts, and quizzes	20%
Class performance	10%
Preparedness, participation, and courtesy
Final Reflection (Take-home final)	10%

We will work as a class to determine a grading rubric for each essay. In general:

An A essay demonstrates an exceptional understanding and fulfillment of the assignment. It has a clear, compelling thesis that is fully explored in a thoughtful argument supported by timely and appropriate research. It reflects a keen awareness of audience. It is elegantly organized and developed as the result of meaningful revision. It is polished at a sentence level, showing a solid command of style, grammar, mechanics, and usage. It observes MLA format and has been proofread carefully for errors. It is submitted on time and adheres to all assignment guidelines.

A B essay meets most of these goals. A C essay meets some of these goals. A D essay meets few of these goals. An F essay fails to meet these goals.

Letter grade to percentage scale

A+	97-100
A	93-96
A-	90-92
B+	87-89
B	83-86
B-	80-82
C+	77-79
C	73-76	Satisfies requirement for 1B
C-	70-72	Does not satisfy requirement for 1B
D+	67-69
D	65-66
D-	60-64
F	59 or lower
