

Creative Writing Section 80

ENGL 71

Spring 2024 3 Unit(s) 01/24/2024 to 05/13/2024 Modified 01/19/2024

Course Information

Section-Specific Course Description

Developing as a writer requires a commitment to two inseparable activities: reading and writing. We read in order to discover what we most value in writing and to get a glimpse of the full range of possibilities in the current literary scene.

So, these will be the two activities of this class. You will read and discuss contemporary writers of poetry, fiction, and creative nonfiction—analyzing the writers' craft and how it might apply to your own work. In parallel, you will be practicing and experimenting with writing—completing regular writing exercises in most classes. Finally, you will produce your own polished work of poetry, fiction, and creative nonfiction and, in workshop, critique the work of your peers.

Course Format

This is an asynchronous online course with two Canvas course modules required to be completed each week. As such, the course requires a computer, access to Canvas, and reliable internet connectivity.

Canvas

All course materials such as syllabus, readings, handouts, notes, and assignment instructions can be found on the Canvas Learning Management System course login website at <http://sjsu.instructure.com>. Most importantly, we will be having discussions and critiquing each other's work through Canvas. Please set your Canvas notifications so that you receive announcements, which will be sent out regularly. You are responsible for monitoring Canvas throughout the semester. You are responsible for regularly checking with the messaging system through MySJSU on Spartan App Portal <http://one.sjsu.edu> (or other communication system as indicated by the instructor) to learn of any updates. We will be going on strike from January 22 – January 26. We demand management gives us a fair contract that recognizes the dignity of CSU faculty, staff, and students. Our working conditions are student learning conditions; we seek to protect both. For further information go to: www.calfac.org/strike.

Academic Dishonesty

All students are responsible for knowing and observing University policies regarding academic dishonesty. See University policy: "Academic Integrity".

Note: All writing assignment must be created exclusively for this class. Submitting work that you completed for another class (whether college or high school) is a form of plagiarism and is required to be reported as such.

Generative AI Policy

I consider generative AI to be deceptive, overhyped, and actively harmful—as I'll cover later in the semester. You are not permitted use generative AI in any context related to this class.

Program Information

Welcome to this General Education course.

SJSU's General Education Program establishes a strong foundation of versatile skills, fosters curiosity about the world, promotes ethical judgment, and prepares students to engage and contribute responsibly and cooperatively in a multicultural, information-rich society. General education classes integrate areas of study and encourage progressively more complex and creative analysis, expression, and problem solving.

The General Education Program has three goals:

Goal 1: To develop students' core competencies for academic, personal, creative, and professional pursuits.

Goal 2: To enact the university's commitment to diversity, inclusion, and justice by ensuring that students have the knowledge and skills to serve and contribute to the well-being of local and global communities and the environment.

Goal 3: To offer students integrated, multidisciplinary, and innovative study in which they pose challenging questions, address complex issues, and develop cooperative and creative responses.

More information about the General Education Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) can be found on the GE website. (<https://sjsu.edu/general-education/ge-requirements/overview/learning-outcomes.php>).

English Program Information

The following statement has been adopted by the Department of English for inclusion in all syllabi: In English Department Courses, instructors will comment on and grade the quality of student writing as well as the quality of ideas being conveyed. All student writing should be distinguished by correct grammar and punctuation, appropriate diction and syntax, and well-organized paragraphs. The Department of English reaffirms its commitment to the differential grading scale as defined in the SJSU Catalog ("The Grading System").

Grades issued must represent a full range of student performance:

- A = excellent;
- B = above average;
- C = average;
- D = below average;
- F = failure.

Within any of the letter grade ranges (e.g. B+/B/B-), the assignment of a +(plus) or -(minus) grade will reflect stronger (+) or weaker (-) completion of the goals of the assignment.

Program Learning Outcomes (PLO)

Upon successful completion of an undergraduate degree program in the Department of English and Comparative Literature, students will be able to:

1. Read closely in a variety of forms, styles, structures, and modes, and articulate the value of close reading in the study of literature, creative writing, or rhetoric.
2. Show familiarity with major literary works, genres, periods, and critical approaches to British, American, and World Literature.
3. Write clearly, effectively, and creatively, and adjust writing style appropriately to the content, the context, and nature of the subject.
4. Develop and carry out research projects, and locate, evaluate, organize, and incorporate information effectively.
5. Articulate the relations among culture, history, and texts, including structures of power.

Course Requirements and Assignments

Success in this course is based on the expectation that students will spend, for each unit of credit, a minimum of 45 hours over the length of the course (normally three hours per unit per week) for instruction, preparation/studying, or course related activities, including but not limited to internships, labs, and clinical practica. Other course structures will have equivalent workload expectations as described in the syllabus.

Writing Assignments

Poems: Three poems. Two will be workshopped, and an additional third will be included in your portfolio.

Short Story: One piece of short fiction

Essay: One piece of creative nonfiction.

Your pieces are due to Canvas three times during the course of the semester. Late submissions will not be workshopped.

Creative Wildcard: One poem/poem sequence, short story, literary essay, or hybrid form of your choice. Throughout the semester, you will regularly complete writing exercises in class—encouraging you to try new forms, techniques, etc. Your creative wildcard—which will be included in your final portfolio but not workshopped—should be drawn from these exercises or inspired by our outside reading. This piece should be free of errors but doesn't need to be as polished or revised as the other work: use this submission to demonstrate your openness to experimentation and (previously) unfamiliar modes of writing.

Workshop Assignments

For each day of workshop, you must fully annotate and critique in Canvas the work of your peers assigned to you. You are required to both mark on the text (suggestions, errors) and to write a developed critique as a comment in Canvas. This critique should be one to two full paragraphs, a minimum of 100 words. You will be typically be critiquing 6 works of your peers on workshop weeks, so you must be careful to budget enough time to do them properly. Additionally, you are required to be active in class discussion, regularly sharing your critiques with the class as a whole. No late critiques will be accepted.

Reading Assignments

Alongside reading and critiquing the work of your peers, you will be reading the work of outside writers, with a substantial number of pages assigned every week. These readings will provide the material for our discussions of craft and form; they provide the framework for the discussion of your work. So, completing all the assigned reading is absolutely crucial.

Final Portfolio

At the end of the semester, you will turn in a portfolio that consists of edited/ final versions of your creative work; a collection previous drafts will also be turned in separately. It is crucial that all pieces be substantially revised from their earlier, workshopped drafts. The quality of your revisions will be a significant factor in your portfolio grade.

Assignment Word Count and Learning Goals

Assignment	Word Count	GELO
3 Poems (two drafts each)	Varies	4,5,7,8,11
1 Short Story (two drafts)	1,500-2,000	4,5,7,8,11
1 Literary Essay (two drafts)	1,500-2,000	4,5,7,8,11

1 Creative Wildcard	Varies	4,5,7,8,11
Workshop Critiques	100-200 each	3, 4, 5, 8, 9
Revised Portfolio of Work	Varies	4,5,7,8,11

Final Examination or Evaluation

As the culminating activity for this course, your final portfolio will be due during our assigned final exam period.

✓ Grading Information

Final portfolio grade: 60%

Poems: 17%

Story: 17%

Literary Essay: 17%

Creative Wildcard 9%

Participation (Module Completion): 25%

Participation (Workshop Critiques): 15%

Due to the workshop format, neither your creative pieces nor your workshop critiques can be submitted late. Late critiques will not be accepted, and creative pieces submitted late to Canvas will not be workshopped. The pieces you submit to workshop will not receive a grade; they will only be graded as part of your revised final portfolio.

If you do not turn in a piece to workshop, but then submit that piece to your portfolio, your non-workshopped pieces will receive an automatic 50% deduction from that portion of your final portfolio grade.
