

Stephanie Montoya Arevalos

HonorsX Peer Mentor

Stephanie Montoya Arevalos is pursuing a degree in International Business with a concentration in Supply and Operations Management. Stephanie has a strong interest in collaborating with teams to identify the most effective pathways toward sustainable solutions. As a member of the 2023-2024 cohort, Stephanie found the HonorsX program to be immensely rewarding, which has motivated her to support future cohorts. Participating in the HonorsX program has significantly enhanced Stephanie's understanding of her career aspirations. She has experienced both professional and personal development through this program, adding value to various aspects of her life.