Dr. Gus Lease

Dr. Gus Lease taught music for 66 years in the College of Humanities and Arts School of Music and Dance. Even after his retirement and attainment of emeritus professor status, Lease continued to teach in the School of Music and Dance, as well as the History department.

Lease raised many Spartan spirits with his rendition of the alma mater “Hail, Spartans Hail,” along with the national anthem, through the years. He performed as vocal soloist at more than 63 homecoming football games and 65 commencement ceremonies.

Gus Lease was devoted to The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi and the SJSU Chapter 067. He served as the chapter president in 1974-1975 and again from 2003 through 2015.

In memory of his long service to Phi Kappa Phi, our chapter scholarship that is awarded every spring to a second semester junior is named in his honor.

Anna Lambourne

Anna Lambourne was initiated into Phi Kappa Phi when she was a student at San José State, where she earned a BA with honors in Russian and French in 1974 at the age of 58. Born in Vladivostok, Russia (December 3, 1915), she witnessed the Russian Revolution and fled with her family to grow up in Shanghai, China. She lived there as a Prisoner of War during World War II and married her husband of 48 years - US Army Captain Alfred "Freddie" Lambourne - in 1946. Her partner in Lambourne Realty, they made a grand dance pair whenever the music started. Anna held a variety of jobs during her life, including positions with the Palace Hotel and Stanford's Hoover Library, and launched her singing career in 2006 with Ree Ree Bruno in the jazz combo headed by Bob Phillips. Later in life, at the age of 94, she founded the Lambourne Institute to promote the education of children from birth before passing away in 2017 at the age of 101.

A scholarship for a student returning to school after a break is awarded every spring.
